King Solomon Lodge #60, F&AM

Second Monday
Dark for December (Installation)

FROM THE EAST:

Brethren,

My year as Master of King Solomon is rapidly coming to an end; however, November will still have events for the Masons of King Solomon to participate. The Temple board will meet on November 2. Our stated meeting will be November 9th. We will also celebrate our Past Masters at this meeting. A dinner will be prepared and served at 6:30.

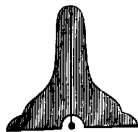

The Veterans Day Parade will be Saturday November 7, 2009 at 11:00am

All Veterans and Masons will meet at the Lodge at 10:00am. We will have the large float it will be the last time that our Masonic float will be used in a Parade. If you are a veteran I would ask that you would wear your service medals that you have been awarded. I feel that you would be doing honor to yourself for the service that you provided for your country.

Since this is my last Month as Master of King Solomon I am going to try to visit every Lodge in District # 13 in the month of November. Nov. 4, T.F. McElroy # 302; Nov 10, Diamond # 83; Nov. 14, Frank S. Land # 313; Nov. 17, Western Cascade #61; Nov. 18, Crescent # 109; and Verity # 59.

I wish to thank those that have helped me to survive this year and accomplish some of the goals that I had set forth. I will continue to work on completing these goals even after I leave this office. It has been an honor to have been your Worshipful Master for 2009.

W.: Bro. Don Downing
Worshipful Master
(doned1@hotmail.com)

FROM THE WEST:

Brothers,

The month of October has come and gone. We had a successful step up night. Our new EA Steven Ling did one of our best proficiencies that we have had and it was a pleasure to listen to him. By the time that you receive this message, we will have given him the FC degree. (Oct. 26th). November will host our Past Masters and will also be elections of the new officers for 2010. I hope to see a good turn out for our dinner at 6:30pm and our stated meeting.

We will also have our annual Temple Board meeting and elections. Anyone interested in working on the Temple Board, let our President W.: Bro. Craig Moore know of your intentions. We need good people to fill some very vital slots. Again, November is our Past Master's and elections night

Fraternally yours
W.: Bro. Walter Russell
Senior Warden
(warus939@msn.com)

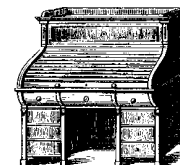

FROM THE SOUTH:

Brethren,

Well folks, Christmas is upon us very soon I know, but we have to prepare for the upcoming Christmas Party. I will need all the help we can get, I've never done this before and it's my very first event as an upcoming Senior Warden. Our Secretary W.: Bro. Loren will be sending out requests for donations for the toys and gifts very soon. On another note we have the Past Masters night coming up (November 9th at 7 pm) and I will be preparing a Pork Rib Roast with salad and dinner rolls and of course baked quartered potatoes and pork gravy, along with milk, and coffee and lemonade. I will be taking that day off to prepare the meal and anyone that can assist me would be greatly appreciated. I know the next day is a work day so I will be utilizing as few dishes as possible and cleaning as I cook. Also I would like to thank all the volunteers for all the degree work that was done over the past year. You have made this year very successful.

We also have the Veteran's Day Parade, as a 21 year Air Force Veteran, I appreciate all the thanks, I really appreciated and enjoyed serving our great country. Please help me and the brethren and other veterans make this a grand day. This will be the last year that we use the float. We will all meet at the Lodge on the 7th of Nov at 10 am.

Fraternally,
Bro. Barry Sherman
Junior Warden
(barrysher2005@gmail.com)

From The Secretary's Desk

My Brothers (and Sisters),

The year is coming to a close, and everything will be soon getting very busy. Veteran's Day will be on the 7th of November, and King Solomon Lodge is one of the last Lodges to get to use the Masonic Float before it is discontinued (I know, but it was Grand Lodge's decision). All of you Brother Masons who are also Veterans are requested to join us in the parade, in or out of uniform.

That same day, there will be a DeMolay installation, and on the next Monday (the 9th) King Solomon is having a dinner, Past Master's Night and Lodge Elections. All Brothers are invited.

Royal Arch will be having their Joint Installation with Enumclaw her on the 19th, with yours truly stepping down as High Priest and moving over to Secretary/Treasurer, where he will feel much more comfortable. W.:Bro. (and soon to be Excellent Companion) John Jones will be stepping into the East as High Priest.

Dues Notices will be going out very soon, so please get your dues back to me as soon as possible. There are also a few who have not paid, and they will also be getting notices to that effect.

And, if you think November is busy, December will be even busier. First is Bethel #78's Installation on the 5th, then King Solomon Lodge's Installation on the 12th. The All-Masonic Christmas Party will be the next day, the 13th. That leaves the rest of the month for family and the holidays.

Fraternally,
W.:Bro. Loren F. Franz, Jr.

Editor, the Trestleboard

Free And Accepted
by William R. Fischer

The Masons who were selected to build the temple of Solomon were declared free. These Free Masons were allowed to gather with their families and were exempt from paying taxes. They also had the privilege to bear arms. Thus, they were accepted as free men.

At the destruction of the Temple by Ne-buch-a-nezzar, these Free Masons were taken to Babylon and put into captivity with the Jews. Cyrus, after taking control of Babylon, gave these Masons permission to return to Jerusalem to erect a second Temple, freeing them to do so.

To be free they had to be accepted as free, hence the term Free and Accepted. Not all men in all cases are accepted as free, they are held by the restraints of doctrine and power. To be free in mind and body one must work at it. So if your are asked:

Are you a Free Man?

Yes.

How do you know you are a free man?

Because I am free to follow my dreams.

What makes you a free man?

The people around me, for I am accepted as a free man.

If you can answer these questions in this manor you are truly a Freemason.

Masonic Moment, Jacques DeMolay # 1390, Houston TX
Scott Hill Bumgardner, Master of Ceremonies
November 11, 1999

I did not realize when I first started planning this presentation that it would be given on Veteran's Day. Obviously a speech about heroes is very appropriate for this special day when we gather to celebrate the men and women who have answered their nation's call to serve.

Brothers, lift high a symbolic glass to toast those who have contributed their time, sweat, blood, and often their lives, to secure the freedom of our nation. May we always remember and honor our veterans.

My presentation however, is not limited to just our soldiers. We can find heroes in many areas of life. Remember back to the heroes of your childhood. Odds are the first heroes you had were parents or relatives. As you grew older heroes were found in other sources. We even had fantasy heroes in comic books. The first we realized of real heroes, were those portrayed in movies and on television.

Films have enabled all of us to watch our hero role models fighting the forces of evil. Though their battles were usually fictional, the ideas of courage and right were easy to see and left young boys dreaming of the day they could rise up against evil. Perhaps the best example was Brother John Wayne. Worldwide people have been entertained for decades by this slow walking rough-hewn performer. The characters Wayne portrayed whether cowboy, soldier, or cop, never left you wondering who the good guy was.

Other film stars have created similar legacies, notably our recently departed Brothers Roy Rogers and Gene Autry. Another brother and actor who portrayed heroes in movies and indeed achieved our nation's highest military honor during World War II was Audie Murphy. Even today we have some performers that show how a hero should act, but more and more often movies cloud the issue and taint the lead characters role.

As we grew older, school and books supplemented our trips into fantasyland. Through reading we were able to learn more about the real heroes of our nation. We learned of the heroics and leadership of Brother George Washington, without whom our country may not have achieved independence. We, here in Texas, have learned of the heroics of our Brothers Austin, Houston, Travis, Bowie, Crocket, and others who helped to carve a new nation, The Republic of Texas from Mexico's bloated landscape.

One of the most fascinating characters that I have read of, was Brother Eddie Rickenbacker. I was captivated by his entire life as I read his autobiography when I was a sophomore in high school. This man was involved in many of the things that felt were interesting. I always liked fast cars and airplanes. Here was a man who was a racecar driver, a Medal of Honor recipient, a World War I air ace, owner of the Indianapolis Speedway, and a President and General Manager of Eastern Airlines. This was a man who was lost at sea for 24 days after a plane crash, yet rose from his injuries to help our air corps organize and prepare for World War II.

These brothers that I have mentioned all obtained the status of hero. Whether through heroic actions or the performances that we honor and dream of emulating, they are men we as Masons and Americans can be proud of. Most of us will never have the opportunity to achieve the fame of these men. Most of us will never have the opportunity to display our heroic talents as these men have. What we do have the chance to do, is to live a life that represents all that is good in man. Through our fraternity, we have stepped into the shoes of heroes. Masons are heroes to many, because of our philanthropies. Children are able to walk because of Masons, burn victims survive because of Masons, sight is restored because of Masons, dyslexic students learn to read because of Masons, and many others benefit because of our heroic efforts to assist others. Brothers, embrace our tenets and through our arts, you can be a hero in the eyes of your community. Again, we are proud of our veterans on this special day and hope that we too can be heroes for our fellow man.

Do Not Forget!

KING SOLOMON monthly brunch buffet served every third Sunday of the month. This month's buffet will be on Sunday, November 15th, 2009 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 pm. Come enjoy Bro. Tom's and W.: Bros. Nick's and Don's tasty repast.
